

Operational Description

This device is a remote controller with operation frequency 480 MHz for industrial use under many dangerous circumstances exist in working place, and the modulation technology is FM. There are one Reset/ Stop switch to stop the operation of Tx and Rx under emergency situation and six control buttons to control the moving direction of industrial carrier. All transmissions will be terminated after the relative transmitting key is released.