We, Aruba Networks, Inc. declare that this BLE device will only be connected to AP, TV, or AC-DC module by professional installers. In the operation of this device, the distance from the EUT and human body is always greater than 2 meters.

This EUT is not a consumer product and will not function when plugged into a standard USB slot, such as on a PC, therefore the case of end user plugging it into a PC at a closer distance to human body doesn't exist. EUT will only be sold and distributed to existing Aruba clients.

This meets the low power exemptions specified within KDB 447498 when used as intended.
