

Explanation of the operation of the transmitter

When the switch is flipped on, the transmitter will send a signal to the receiver to tell it to turn on, but the transmitter cannot stay on for longer than 5 seconds even if any switch is still in the on position.

