Dear Sir or Madam,

Concerning the relationship between Ingersoll Rand and XceedID, in 2008 Ingersoll Rand purchased XceedID. Since that purchase date, product lines designed by XceedID are branded and sold under both Ingersoll Rand and XceedID. Use of XceedID and Ingersoll Rand should be treated as interchangeable.

Sincerely,
