

EUT Info

The base unit tested is a pre-production unit.

No modifications were made which were required for FCC compliance.

The firmware used to operate is nominal operating firmware, i.e. not compliance specific changes were made. The firmware includes test commands which were used for compliance testing.