Gentlemen:

This letter is to comply with Section 15.203 for Professional Installation.

Intended Use

DigitalPath, Inc uses this product in an outdoor environment as a last mile wireless internet access product which is installed by trained technicians.

Method of marketing

DigitalPath, Inc utilizes the product to provide end users internet access. The product (unit) is not for sale in any retail outlets and requires both an NDA and license to be utilized by any 3rd party.

Professional installation is required for all products currently sold, thus requiring training and documentation beyond the scope of an average consumer product sold at a retail outlet. The end-user of this product has no control over the operational mode selected, channel or power related settings.

Sincerely,

Brock Eastman, VP Engineering
