

The image shows a white, rectangular plastic component with a ribbed texture. It has eight screws: two on the top edge, two on the bottom edge, and four on the right edge. The component is placed on a wooden surface. A yellow ruler is positioned horizontally above the component, and a metal ruler is positioned vertically to the left of it. A white rectangular box with the text "Label Location" is overlaid on the bottom right corner of the component.

Label Location