

Antenna Information

The antenna is a ceramic chip antenna with a frequency range from 2400-2500 Mhz and an average gain of -1 dBi typical. The center frequency impedance is 50 Ohms. The antenna is coupled to the transmitter through a single stage, low pass LC filter to attenuate unwanted harmonics from the RF output.

