Attestation

We, Zebra Technologies Corporation, attest that this device with FCC ID: UZ7TC101B complies with the following FCC requirements.

- 1) The device only punctures to optimize network performance and never to avoid licensed incumbents.
- 2) If a licensed incumbent is detected, the equipment will either use bandwidth reduction or a complete move of the channel for avoidance.
- 3) If a channel is punctured in order to optimize network performance, it will continue to use CBP in the punctured region.
