IMPORTANT

PLEASE READ CAREFULLY BEFORE USING YOUR SKYCADDIE TOUCH

This Product Information Guide contains important safety, handling, and warranty information, as well as software license information, for your SkyCaddie TOUCH. Please read carefully before using your SkyCaddie TOUCH.

Important Safety and Handling Information

WARNING: Failure to follow these safety and handling instructions could result in fire, electric shock, or other personal injury or property damage, including damage to your SkyCaddie TOUCH.

Carrying and Handling your SkyCaddie TOUCH

Your SkyCaddie TOUCH contains sensitive components. Do not disassemble, open, crush, puncture, shred, microwave, incinerate, or insert foreign objects into your SkyCaddie TOUCH.

Avoiding Water and Wet Locations

Exposure to water may cause damage to your SkyCaddie TOUCH. Do not use your SkyCaddie TOUCH in rain or other wet locations. Take care not to spill any food or liquid on your SkyCaddie TOUCH. Do not attempt to dry your SkyCaddie TOUCH with an external heat source, such as a microwave oven or hair dryer. SkyCaddie TOUCH devices that are damaged as a result of exposure to liquids are not serviceable.

Repairing or Modifying your SkyCaddie TOUCH

Never attempt to repair or modify your SkyCaddie TOUCH yourself. Disassembling your SkyCaddie TOUCH will void the warranty. Your SkyCaddie TOUCH does not contain any user-serviceable parts. Service should only be provided by a SkyGolf® Authorized Service Provider. If your SkyCaddie TOUCH has been punctured, or subjected to a severe fall, do not use it until you contact an Authorized Service Provider. The rechargeable battery in your SkyCaddie TOUCH is not user-replaceable and should be replaced by a SkyGolf Authorized Service Provider only. For service information, go to www.SkyCaddie.com.

Charging your SkyCaddie TOUCH

In charging your SkyCaddie TOUCH, use only a SkyGolf supplied charger specifically designed for your SkyCaddie TOUCH. Use of other chargers may cause personal injury and property damage, including damage to your SkyCaddie TOUCH.

Read all safety instructions for any products and accessories before using your SkyCaddie TOUCH. SkyGolf is not responsible for the operation of third-party accessories or their compliance with safety and regulatory standards.

When charging the battery on your SkyCaddie TOUCH with an authorized SkyGolf charger designed for use with the SkyCaddie TOUCH, make sure that the charger is fully assembled before you plug it into a power outlet. Do not connect or disconnect the charger with wet hands.

The charger may become warm during normal use, however your SkyCaddie TOUCH should never become hot. Always allow adequate ventilation around the charger and use care when handling. Unplug the charger if any of the following conditions exist:

- The power cord or plug has become frayed or damaged.
- The adapter is exposed to rain, liquid or excessive moisture.
- The adapter case has become damaged.
- You suspect the adapter needs service or repair.

Choking Hazards

Your SkyCaddie TOUCH contains small parts, which may present a choking hazard to small children. Keep your SkyCaddie TOUCH and its accessories away from children.

Using Connectors and Ports

Never force a connector into a port on your SkyCaddie TOUCH. Check for obstructions on the port. If the connector and port do not join with reasonable ease, make sure that the connector and port are properly aligned before attempting to insert again.

Keeping Your SkyCaddie TOUCH Within Acceptable Temperatures

Operate your SkyCaddie TOUCH in a place where the temperature is between 0° and 35° C (32° to 95° F). Low or high temperature conditions might shorten battery life or cause your SkyCaddie TOUCH to stop working properly. Avoid dramatic changes in temperature or humidity when using your SkyCaddie TOUCH and store it in a cool, dry place at room temperature.

Exposure to Radio Frequency Energy

Your SkyCaddie TOUCH contains radio transmitters and receivers, much like cell phones, pagers and other similar devices. When on, your SkyCaddie TOUCH sends and receives radio frequency (RF) energy through its antenna.

The SkyCaddie TOUCH can emit radio waves that can affect the operation of nearby electronics, including cardiac pacemakers.

- Do not use the SkyCaddie TOUCH within 9 inches of a pacemaker.
- If you have a pacemaker or other implanted medical device, do not use the SkyCaddie TOUCH without first consulting your doctor or the manufacturer of your medical device. Your SkyCaddie TOUCH has been tested and meets the SAR exposure requirements for Bluetooth® operation. Your SkyCaddie TOUCH is designed and manufactured to comply with applicable limits for exposure to RF energy.

- 1) Grant of License — Licensor provides limited access to the SkyGolf Software and, in connection therewith, the SkyGolf internet web site, and grants a limited license for their use under the terms of this License Agreement and, if separately purchased, the terms of your SkyCaddie® Membership Plan and/or SkyGolf 360 mobile application. To the extent this License Agreement includes the licensing of Software or other components also licensed in connection with a SkyCaddie® Membership Plan (which includes access to SkyGolf course maps and to advanced course management features) and/or a SkyGolf 360 mobile application (which includes statistical analysis and storing of playing information), you will lose access to such Software and other components (including any SkyGolf course maps downloaded to your SkyCaddie® device as well as any scores, statistics and other information you have stored on your SkyGolf, Club SG™ (Beta) or SkyGolf 360 account) on expiration of the term of your SkyCaddie® Membership Plan or SkyGolf 360 mobile application if not timely renewed. Licensor reserves the right to stop offering SkyCaddie® Membership Plans and/or SkyGolf 360 mobile application renewals at any time without notice.

- a. Subject to paragraph 5 below and the other terms of this License Agreement, you are granted a nontransferable, non-exclusive license to use the SkyGolf Software under the terms stated in this License Agreement and, if purchased separately, the terms stated in your SkyCaddie® Membership Plan License Agreement and/or SkyGolf 360 mobile application for solely personal noncommercial use in connection with the single SkyCaddie® Product. The rights granted herein are limited to the use of the SkyGolf Software and your SkyGolf, Club SG™ (Beta) or SkyGolf 360 account in accordance with this License Agreement, and do not include any rights in any patents or other intellectual property rights of Licensor.
- b. Except as and only to the extent expressly permitted in this License or by applicable law, you may not copy, de-compile, re-compile, reverse engineer, disassemble, attempt to derive the source code of, modify, or create derivative works or translations of the Software or SkyGolf course maps. The SkyGolf Software, SkyGolf course maps and other software downloaded from the Licensor's web site may not be used with, transferred or transmitted to any other GPS hardware, GPS software, or any other user or medium, except to an authorized SkyCaddie® hardware/software system in your name (or the name of a transferee authorized by Licensor) for personal noncommercial use in accordance with this License Agreement. Licensor reserves the right to limit the number of SkyGolf course maps downloaded to the SkyCaddie® Product, both in terms of total number of courses downloaded and number of courses downloaded over any given period of time.

- e. This License Agreement is effective until expiration, unless sooner terminated by Licensor. To the extent this License Agreement includes the licensing of Software or other components also licensed in connection with a SkyGolf Membership Plan (including access to SkyGolf course maps and to advanced course management features) and/or a SkyGolf 360 mobile application (including statistical analysis and storing of playing information), this License Agreement with respect to such Software or other components expires simultaneously with the expiration of such Membership Plan or mobile application. Additionally, this license terminates, without notice, if you fail to comply with any provision of this Agreement. You agree upon expiration or termination to destroy the SkyGolf Software, together with all copies, modifications and merged portions in any form, including any copy in your computer memory or on a hard disk.
