Dear Sir or Madam:

We, GUARDIAN SHANGHAI CORP. hereby declare that product series of 2211-D and 615CC, 628CC, 628FCACC are electrically identical with the PCB design, components and electromagnetic compatibility characteristics, and model: 2211-D has been tested by BACL. 615CC and 2211-D are just different model for business reasons. They are actually the same garage door openers. The differences of them are as follows: just external structures and model names for business.

Please contact me if there is need for any additional clarification or information.

Best Regards,
